Walking Humbly

27to29 November 2009

A journey through the
Murray Darling Basin, Victoria.

Walking Humbly— the true spirit of what Parliament of World Religions means.

We will engage and learn from each other along a scenic journey through Victoria's Murray Darling Basin. Starting & finishing in Melbourne, we will travel to Healesville to enjoy some of Australia's natural flora & fauna. We will then head to KingLake & hear the heart felt stories of what the locals faced through the Bushfires of Black Saturday. We will be part of the healing taking place. Over the next two days we will visit Shepparton, Barmah Forest (Echuca), Castlemaine & Bendigo. Staying each night at the beautiful Nagambie Lakes Leisure Resort.

It will be a journey of a life time.
