

WHO AM I?

Free public conversation series leading up to the Melbourne Parliament of the World's Religions.

This series of monthly conversations creates public dialogue between people of different backgrounds and religious traditions. Moderated by Penny Mulvey of Positive Media, they explore questions relevant to the upcoming Melbourne Parliament of the World's Religions and to our multifaith society.

AUGUST Who am I in my inner life? Mysticism across religions

Presentation of Hindu, Buddhist and contemporary teachings on inner life with Jewish, Christian and Muslim responses.

Date/Time: Sunday 16 August, 2.00–4.30pm

Venue: Monash University, Caulfield Campus, Room K309, 900 Dandenong Rd, Caulfield East

Speakers: Isobel Crombie Chair, Shiva School of Meditation • Padmasiri de Silva Research Associate in the School of Historical Studies, Monash University • Ken and Elizabeth Mellor Social Workers and Psychotherapists • Constant Mews Director, Centre for Studies in Religion and Theology, Monash University • Nathan Wolski Lecturer in Jewish Studies at the Australian Centre for Jewish Civilisation, Monash University • Salih Yucel Lecturer in Islamic Studies at the Centre for Studies in Religion and Theology, Monash University • Claire Renkin Lecturer in art history and spirituality at Yarra Theological Union, Melbourne College of Divinity

Bookings: susan.grist@arts.monash.edu.au

Indian spiritual music will be provided by The Mighty Shiva Band, from the Shiva School of Meditation, Mt Eliza.

Co-Sponsored by the Centre for Studies in Religion and Theology, Monash University and the Centre for Jewish Civilisation, Monash University

For more information and sponsors, please turn over

WHO AM I? >> Coming Soon

SEPT Who am I in cyberspace? Spirituality and identity online

What is cyberspace doing to people's identity and spirituality?

Date/Time: Monday 21 September, 6.00–7.30pm

Venue: St Michael's Uniting Church, cnr Collins and Russells Sts, Melbourne

Speakers: Mandy Salomon and Rev. Francis McNab

Bookings: reception@stmichaels.org.au

Sponsored by St Michael's Uniting Church

OCT Who am I in a hungry world?

Two people with a radical commitment to addressing issues of hunger and injustice locally and internationally.

Date/Time: Wednesday 7 October, 8.00–9.30pm

Venue: Sala Venezia, 2nd floor, Veneto Club, 191 Bulleen Rd, Bulleen 3105 (Melways 32 D9)

Speakers: Margaret Fyfe CSB and Shanaka Fernando.

Bookings: Buffet dinner available $25 from 6.30pm with advance bookings, call Giulia 9850 7111 and mention this event. Coffee and drinks purchasable at bar from 7.30pm.

This event is part of 'Spirituality in the Pub' series, an initiative of Catalyst for Renewal and sponsored by the Yarra Deanery.

More details about these and other events

can be found at our website www.parliamentofreligions.org

Supported by

Australian Government
Department of Immigration and Citizenship

